Trenam enjoys a rare position among Florida's law firms. We are recognized as a leader in the state, ranking among the top law firms in size and breadth of practice. We are proud that our firm and most of our attorneys are listed in third-party publications and directories including The Best Lawyers in America, Chambers USA, Florida Super Lawyers, Florida Trend, Legal Elite, Martindale Hubbell, and U.S. News & World Report Best Law Firms.

Trenam serves the needs of our clients in the Tampa Bay area and throughout the state of Florida with offices in Tampa, St. Petersburg, and Sarasota, Florida. We have over ninety attorneys practicing in multiple practice groups, all sharing the goal of working with clients to establish cost-effective, highly automated, and responsive representation. Our attorneys value relationships over projects, and to be not just attorneys, but reliable business partners and trusted advisors to our clients.

Founded in 1970, Trenam has evolved to meet the changing needs of our clients. Our flexibility has allowed the firm to develop and retain clients, both large and small, across a wide range of industries including real estate, banking, manufacturing, financial services, hospitality, construction, and technology. Our ability to represent clients in all facets of their business, from litigation to complex business transactions, has allowed us to grow at a rapid pace.

We operate on the simple principle that achieving success for our clients is paramount. That means phone calls get returned, questions get answered and problems get solved. We are sensitive to our clients' need to minimize expenses without forfeiting the quality of service they deserve and we deliver.

DEI Commitment

Trenam Law is committed to maintaining an environment that supports and promotes diversity, equity, and inclusion. We strive to include and welcome clients and team members without regard to age, race, ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, religion and disability. Trenam aims to demonstrate diversity both internally and externally. We treat everyone on our team fairly, with due consideration and opportunities for professional growth and advancement. We support each individual in our effort to bring a sense of belonging as our authentic selves.

Our course of action:

- Recruitment
- Education & Training
- Policies & Procedures
- Marketing & Community Outreach

Trenam's active membership in MSI Global Alliance provides us access to a network of leading independent, international legal and accounting firms, affording us global reach without yielding our local focus.

MSI Global Alliance is a Top 20 ranked international association of independent professional services firms. Formed in 1990 in response to the growing need for cross-border cooperation between independent, professional services firms, MSI has steadily grown to become a leading, international association with over 250 independent member firms in more than 100 countries throughout the Americas, Asia-Pacific, Europe, the Middle East, and Africa regions. Membership in MSI enables Trenam Law to quickly source reliable, local expertise worldwide—wherever our clients are involved in doing business—and the flexibility generally absent from multi-office international firms, to find and engage exactly the right professional for each client and matter.

For further information on MSI, please visit www.msiglobal.org.

It was January, 1970 when our Founders thought it was a good idea to leave their current firm and start a new one. The US population had just passed 293 million. The first non-stop 747 commercial flight from New York to London had successfully landed in a mere 6.50 hours. Television network ABC premiered a new soap opera, All My Children, and Walt Disney opened a preview center in what would later become the nation's largest tourist attraction, Disney World. Complementing these influential and enduring events, five attorneys, with four associates and twelve support staff, decided to form Trenam, Simmons, Kemker, Scharf, and Barkin, a firm whose culture and success would focus on the principles of client service, collaboration, professional development, and commitment to the community. Within five years, the firm would expand to occupy an entire floor of the First Florida Tower and add two named partners to become Trenam, Simmons, Kemker, Scharf, Barkin, Frye & O'Neill.

Now, as Trenam Law, we celebrate 50 years as a firm, as a team, we look back on these principles and reflect upon the foundation they established, which has enabled us to grow our ranks, expand our footprint, and to witness and participate in the development of the Tampa Bay region.

Our founders set out to create an inclusive, family based culture at the firm; one where all members, shareholders, associates, and staff, were equally valued and appreciated for their roles and contributions. They believed in, and we continue to emphasize, the importance of having a wide range of knowledge, experience, perspectives, and backgrounds represented in all roles at our firm.

That belief, a key differentiation in today's legal market, is integral to the culture we began fifty years ago. And we continue to devote substantial time and resources, whether through firm social events or community engagement and volunteering opportunities, to ensuring each Trenam employee is imbued with the same philosophy. As a result, we are proud to have created a culture where attorneys, employees, and importantly, countless clients, have remained with Trenam throughout the decades.

Nevertheless, strategic management of the firm in order to benefit our clients was and is inherent to our success. This is embodied in our Code of Client Commitment, and based on four simple principles:

- Getting to know our clients' businesses and understanding what is important to them in both legal and business terms and goals;
- Offering certainty and accountability on the economics and logistics of matters and being time and cost conscious at all times;
- Providing accessibility via cell phone and/or email, even after hours, with a maximum 24 hour response time; and
- Delivering on deadlines by either meeting or exceeding expectations in a timely manner.

Ever since we opened our doors, we have endeavored to be trusted advisors beyond legal advice to our clients. This desire is at the heart of our approach to integrity and client service. It requires consistent and thorough communication, which we establish at the beginning of each engagement and emphasize throughout the life of the client relationship. It also requires sophisticated collaboration and team work, a strength in unity our founders believed would be central to the firm's success. These goals are facilitated by investments in advanced and evolving technologies which enhance our team work, communications, and efficiencies. Our seamless coordination and emphasis on the relationships and interactions between practices, offices, attorneys, and staff has allowed us to be held to account not only by each other, but also by our clients.

As observers and contributors to the Tampa Bay region's growth across the bay over the last fifty years, a central tenant of the core values we inherited from our founders is investing in our communities, with both time and treasure. We do this in several ways, including: having attorneys join various legal, business, and civic organizations and non-profit boards; providing pro bono assistance in-house and through community agencies; and by providing and supporting volunteer opportunities which allow us to integrate our families into social engagements and events. With a focus on charitable organizations providing aid to children, the less fortunate, the arts, and the entrepreneurial ecosystem bridging the bay, we seek to treat each market individually, yet cooperatively; respecting each one's strengths, needs, and future plans.

Looking forward to our next fifty years, we will continue to be grateful for the groundwork laid by our founders and all who have come through our doors; especially our valued clients. We hope to express that gratitude to our clients and the communities which have given us so much over the years. We will continue to invest in the technologies needed to enhance client service, contain costs, improve efficiencies, and adapt to the evolving trends of the legal industry.
