Melissa is a paralegal in the firm's Bankruptcy and Creditor's Rights Practice Group, bringing over fifteen years of professionalism and experience in the field of bankruptcy. Melissa worked for the United States Bankruptcy Court as a case manager for Judge Delano's team for three years before moving into private practice for the rest of her career, spending the first few years in creditors rights and the last ten years on the consumer side. When she is not working, you can most certainly find her at Walt Disney World with her husband or spoiling their four cats.
